

YOUNG SVENGALI STOLE $44,250, LIVED LIKE NABOB

Marx Posed as Broker in Riverside Drive While Swindling
Hoboken Bankers.

DECEIVED HIS WIFE, TOO

Clerk at the Bank Aided Him in Wrongfully Getting Its Funds.

A visit to the Riverside Drive home of Fritz F. Marx, the young man of twenty-two, who found it simple as parsing an apple to separate $44,250 from the bankroll of John Steneck & Sons, steamship agents and bankers, of Hoboken, disclosed to-day that the young man was enjoying his irregularly obtained wealth to the full. He and his young wife, who with her two-day-old baby is being attended by two trained nurses, occupied a luxuriously furnished apartment, for which young Marx paid $300 a month rent.

A butler, two maids and a cook have been installed for several months in the luxuriously appointed flat. By his neighbors the young man was regarded as a prosperous broker.

The pathetic feature of the case is that the young wife believed her husband to be a successful broker. She had implicit faith in him.

Kept His Secret Well.

She constantly asked for him to-day, but none of those who ministered to her and her infant had the heart to tell the truth—that he is fast behind the bars in a Hoboken jail. They feared the shock would kill her.

Dr. F. O. Virgin, of No. 126 West One Hundred and Twenty-first street, is attending Mrs. Marx. He likewise was absolutely ignorant of the financial methods of the fastidious young dandy who ruled the household. He declared to-day that he was certain the young mother was ignorant of how her husband obtained the riches he was dispensing with both hands. He had only told her that he was going to take her abroad in May to spend the summer motoring on the Continent.

Fritz Marx is a nephew of Frank Joseph, a wealthy meat packer, and president of the Butchers' Dressed Beef Association. Mr. Joseph has a beautiful home at No. 88 Riverside Drive, where he said this afternoon that he had engaged a lawyer to see what could be done for his nephew.

Mr. Joseph was very angry when his nephew married Edythe Bruns, a poor young Swedish girl, whom he met at the boarding house of Mrs. Emma Wayne, No. 20 West One Hundred and Fifth street, when he came here from his home in Frankfurt, Germany, two years ago. The couple eloped a year ago, after which Mr. Joseph refused to support his nephew, and told him that he would have to shift for himself.

Says Svengali Lured Him.

Mrs. Wayne is a sister of Leopold Marten, the young clerk who was arrested with Marx yesterday, and who confessed that he had made the $44,250 swindle possible.

According to a statement made by Mrs. Wayne to-day, her brother had been the victim of Marx's Svengali wiles.

Until Marten met Marx, his sister said he was the most upright young fellow imaginable. He had a young wife, to whom he was devoted, and was the soul of honor. Until a few years ago he was employed as assistant secretary in the German Consulate here. He comes of the best German stock, and his relatives are prosperous and influential.

It was only two years ago, said the sister, when young Marten fell under the baleful influence of that shrewd, heavy-browed little chap, Marx. They met in the boarding house at No. 50 West One Hundred and Fifth street, where Marten was living with his young wife. It was there, also, that Marx met the young girl he married, and who is now at her home, No. 362 Riverside Drive, with a three-day-old baby, tortured with grief over the predicament of her husband in a Hoboken jail.

"That man Marx," said Mrs. Wayne, "was Leo's evil genius. I warned my brother against him, and so did my sister, Mrs. Emily Schaeffer. But it was no use. Fritz Marx had only to wink his eye and my brother ran to him. He did his every bidding as if his soul was not his own. Poor Leo was getting only $15 a week as clerk for that banking firm, and I suppose that Marx tempted him and got him so involved he could not break away from his terrible influence."

ACCUSER OF GIRL ARRESTED IN COURT

Nicholson Became Defender and Was Held for Smuggling Cocaine to Cell.

For more than two months Detective Boyle, of the Yorkville Court squad, had been looking for Kate Stauch, described as a good-looking blonde of twenty-one years, with some initials tattooed on her right forearm. On Jan. 19, Matthew Nicholson, a middle-aged man, who called himself an agent, had sworn out a warrant for the girl, alleging that while acting as his housekeeper in a flat at No. 20 East Forty-fourth street she ran away with money and jewelry to the total of $150.

Boyle on Saturday night ran across a yellow-haired girl with a tattooed arm. According to his statement she confessed taking the goods, but said she had returned them to Nicholson's flat and had been living there ever since, although the charge of larceny still stood against her.

To-day when her case was called in the Yorkville Court, Nicholson appeared as defender of the prisoner. He said he had been mistaken when he accused her of taking his valuables and wanted to withdraw the accusation. There was nothing for Magistrate Ross to do except to discharge Kate Stauch.

Before Nicholson could get out of the room with her there was some whispering around the Magistrate's desk, and Nicholson was yanked back. Keeper Lynch, of the lockup downstairs, testified that on Sunday afternoon Nicholson had brought some food to the girl, who was then in a cell, and that when Turner Gregory examined the bundle he found in a box of bread two boxes of cigarettes and a roll of cocaine. So Mr. Nicholson was held in bond for further examination, on the charge of trying to smuggle contrabands into a city prison. He was locked up.

MILK DEALERS COMBINE.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., March 22.—Several wholesale dealers, who for years have handled large quantities of milk for the New York market from Orange, Sullivan and Delaware Counties, have consolidated under the name of The Castleton Dairy Company.

Why Is Fat

It is because it is born with the tendency. Or is it one of "life's trials," or is it due to just plain, hearty appetite? The doctors say not any one of these phrases the question correctly. They say fat is because the fat person's digestive organs are defective. Such organs, it seems, do not change the fatty foods eaten by stout persons into heat and energy, as they should. Instead the food fats pass on into the system unconverted. Hence fat layers accumulate under the skin in quiet spots, such as the chin, abdomen, shoulder blades, etc.

Let that digestive defect be corrected and the formerly fat person goes back to his or her original shape. You can prove this on yourself. Seventy-five cents will secure from your druggist one of the large cases of Marmola Prescription Tablets recently licensed for sale by the Marmola Company, of Detroit, Mich. Take one of these tablets after each meal and at bedtime, and the demonstration starts right there. Very soon you will experience a new sense of digestive comfort and a delightful feeling of increased energy which should be followed in due season by a gradual, uniform decrease of your fat.

During the demonstration period you eat and drink as formerly. Remember. The tablets need no help from either dieting or exercising, nevertheless the daily loss should approximate ten to sixteen ounces a day.

Now, WHY is it you get thin? Why is it the fat just seems to slip away, leaving your skin smooth, firm and wrinkleless? Simply because Marmola corrects that digestive defect, thereby stopping further fat accumulation and enabling the body forces to harmlessly dissolve what has already gathered.

THIRD AVENUE STOCK WEAKENS MARKET

Heavy Loss by Traction Issue
Affects Entire List and Early Gains Are Wiped Out.

With Northern and Southern Pacific and American Smelting leading, the stock market made an upward movement soon after an irregular start to-day. Good buying of the standard issues caused gains of about 1 point. Later in the session there was a slight reaction, but prices still showed material advances. Trading was fairly active.

The market was featured at mid-day period by a drive against the Third Avenue and Inter-Met, the former selling from 35 1/4 to 32, a loss of 3 3/4 from yesterday's closing. Inter-Met Common dropped to 117 1/2, a decline of 2 3/8. The preferred lost 4 3/8 points. The remainder of the market shaded off fractionally in sympathy.

The market was depressed by the weakness in Third Avenue, and changes at the close showed losses of from 1 to 2 points in the active list. Third Avenue and Inter-Met were extremely weak, the former declining 7 1/2 and the latter 2 1/4 and the preferred 4 3/8. Trading was active at the finish. The total sales of stocks were 632,000 shares and of bonds $2,560,000.

The Closing Prices.

To-day's highest, lowest and last prices of stocks and of net changes as compared with yesterday's final figures are as follows:

Stock	High	Low	Last	Net
Am. Car & Found.	70 1/2	69	69 1/2	+ 1/2
Am. Ice Co.	31 1/2	30 1/2	30 1/2	+ 1/2
Am. Locomotive	62	61 1/2	61 1/2	+ 1/2
Am. Sm. & Ref.	87 1/2	87	87	+ 1/2
Am. Sm. & R. P.	103 1/2	103 1/2	103 1/2	+ 1/2

Lamberts' Easter Display

Like everybody else with Easter jewelry in mind, you are looking for the unusual. Come in and we will show you NOVELTIES FRESH FROM OUR OWN FACTORY, where the cleverest workmen we can find are busy all the year round turning out jewelry as solidly constructed as it is beautiful—and that is saying much.

Prices are unusual, too, for this house is as advanced in business methods as in designing and manufacturing. There is no place in our system for the middleman. You will see for yourself what this means when you look at some SPLENDID PIECES OF GOLD AND DIAMOND JEWELRY in our store, and learn that you can buy them for prices elsewhere asked for goods away down below them in STYLE, QUALITY AND WORKMANSHIP.

Something New in Sleeve Buttons

Here is one of our new styles in sleeve buttons, solid 14-karat gold, guaranteed, simple, strong and serviceable, as well as handsome. The most particular man may well be proud to wear such buttons, yet the price of them is only $4.00.

Other styles, plain solid gold, from $1.75 up; with diamonds, $10.00 up.

Diamond Engagement Rings

The printer, limited by his tools, cannot show the lustre of the polished gold nor the sparkle of the diamonds in these rings. The gems are directly imported by us, the mountings are hand made in our own factory. In all ways these rings are EXCLUSIVE LAMBERT PRODUCTS. We want the man in search of an engagement ring to see what we offer from $10.00 to $1,500.00.

A well-made, solid 14-karat gold ring, with fine diamond, directly imported by ourselves, only $25.00.

A brilliant, beautiful diamond, in hand-made mounting of solid 14-karat gold. Superb example of Lambert work. Yours for $75.00.

This hand-made mounting of solid 14-karat gold shows all the beauty of a splendid diamond of the size illustrated. Price, $80.00.

This noble solitaire could not possibly be sold for our price, with middlemen to pay. Solid 14-karat hand-made mounting; $100.00.

Let us show you jewelry appropriate for Wedding Gifts. Please remember that we guarantee everything.

Our Famous Wedding Rings

There is never a time of year when a little reminder of Lambert Wedding Rings is out of order. When we say that they are made of guaranteed solid gold without solder, partly by improved machinery and partly by skilled hands, WE HAVE NOT BEGUN TO TELL HOW GOOD THEY ARE. All shapes, styles and widths. No charge for engraving.

MEMBER OF CHURCH 86 YEARS IS DEAD

BLOOMFIELD, N. J., March 22.—"Uncle John" Almond Cadmus, who had a distinct remembrance of having seen Gen. Lafayette as he passed through New York City on his last American visit, died last night at the home of his nephew on Franklin street. He was ninety-seven years old. Mr. Cadmus was born in Bloomfield and lived here practically all his life. He was the oldest member of the First Presbyterian Church, he having attended that church for eighty-six years. Mr. Cadmus's death was unexpected, as he had not been ill. He is survived by a son and two daughters. On the occasion of the visit of Lafayette to New York City Mr. Cadmus made the journey to that city and had a good look at the French soldier. He frequently spoke of this trip in after years.
